"Sullivan rushed as usual, but the nimble Corbett was away and out of range. Before Sullivan could set again, Corbett came inside his guard and landed a straight right on John's nose. The stab seemed to daze the big fellow. Jim came in again and whipped the right to the sore spot. There was blood on his glove when he stepped back. Sullivan looked helpless. Corbett was watching him. He feinted low with the left and then swung his right to John's head, catching him on the jaw with a stinging force that made the champion shut his eyes. Corbett rushed and was all over his man, digging a left into the stomach and hooking a right to the

Turfman Ryan Challenges Oldfield for Race.

New York that John J. Ryan, the noted turfman, proposes to turn his attention to automobiling, and has come out with a challenge to race anybody for ten miles for a side bet of $1,000 per mile. He stated that he would rather race against Barney Oldfield. If the men race, what the ex-Salt Lake bike rider will do to Plunger Ryan will be a shame.

Dr. Charles De Gano Gray has issued challenge on behalf of Ryan to Col. Billy Thompson, who manages Oldfield, for a ten-mile auto race. Dr. Gray wishes to make a side bet of $10,000, and Col. Thompson agrees to make the laccepted.

Word has been received here from | wager, but stipulates that the race shall be run at New Orleans, March 26 or 27, Instead of at Hot Springs, as is desired by Ryan.
Oldfield is booked for New Orleans on those dates, and, having seen the track, believes that world-record driving will be possible there. As he will then have his Bullet No. 2 (the machine he is now using being the Bullet No. 3), the champion feels certain of taking away the money of Dr. Gray and Ryan.

The latter owns a seventy-horse power car with which he has long been anxious to enter the automobile racing field. In a quiet way he challenged any one to contest at the Ormond meet, offering a fair-sized wager, the money to go to charity. His offers were not

The ridera will be handicapped so that the inexperienced will have an equal chance with those who have competed n former events. It goes without say, ng that nearly all the local amateurs will enter the race, and that a large contingent will come from Provo and Ogden. The course will be the sam as in former years. # DOINGS IN THE SOUARED CIRCLE.

The Next Local Contest Between "Spider" Welch and "Battling" Nelson.

THE CARD CONSIDERED STRONG

What Experts Say of the Corbett-Britt Fight-Denver Boy is Picked to-Carry Off Honors.

The Shamrock Athletic club has practically completed arrangements for a centest to take place in Salt Lake the 5th of next month between "Spider" Welch and "Battling" Nelson. The for. mer is from San Francisco and the latter from Chicago. The boxers have never seen each other, never fought, and they are evenly matched, according to their records. They will meet at 133 pounds ringside and go 20 rounds, or less, under the rules that usually govern contests of this kind. It is the ecucensus of opinion among local devotees of the fight game, that the match is one of the best that has been made here in recent years, and that the card will prove to be an exceptionally strong one.

For several days the management was seriously considering the proposed match between Flynn and Hugo Kelly as the first contest in April. Many Sait Lake fight fans expressed a desire to see a couple of middleweights or heavyweights in preference to lightweights, and it is barely possible that this pair will yet be the first bout here. The management has guaranteed them a purse of $500, and they both accepted a purse of $500, and they both accepted the terms made. Welch and Nelson, with their trainers are ready to come here upon a moment's notice. Trans-portation has been sent to them and they only await the word to come. These men have exceptionally fine records, from a puglistic standpoint. Welch's record has been published in these columns before and readers of the "News" sporting page are familiar with it. Nelson is considered a very tough proposition among the light-weights, as he has defeated some of the best of them and has won 27 straight fights.

Dave Sullivan, who was recently defeated by Young Corbett in a battle for the world's featherweight championship, picks Corbett as a certain winner over Jimmy Britt when the rivals clash the last of this month.

The following article was written by the fighting Irishman: Young Corbett will knock Jimmle Britt out. The coast boy may be able to stall off the end for 10 or 12, or, possibly 15 rounds, but as surely as he steps into the ring with the champion

he is doomed to defeat.
"I have seen Britt fight and I have fought Young Corbett. Besides this, I have watched both men in their daily sparring work and I have talked with men that they have fought. In my judgment, knowing both men as I do Corbett will win inside of five rounds will rush Britt from the first, and will have the coast idol in distress fore the end of two or three rounds. I realize that Britt is possessed of strong recuperative powers, and therefore make allowances for him staying sev-eral rounds after Corbett his him all in. At that there is slim chance of Jimmie going more than 15 rounds.

"In predicting Britt's defeat I an not underrating the coast boy-not for a moment. Britt is clever; that has been proven time and time again. He has fought the best men in the light weight division, and he has never beet found wanting. Britt, however, is not a 130-pound fighter. He may be able to train down and enter the ring at that weight, but he cannot put up the best fight that is in him. Corbett, on the other hand, will be at his very best at 130 pounds and, finding Britt weak from exces sive training down, will bore in an finish the coast boy in sensationally quick time. It should not be forgotten, too, that, clever as Britt is, Young Corbett is cleverer. I doubt if the ring has ever seen the equal of Young Corbett. He is three times the fighter Terry McGovern was in Terry's best days. and away the best featherweight in the ring today, and it is extremely doubtful if there is any lightweight who can hold up a candle to him.

Following are some opinions on the coming Britt-Corbett fight:
Eddie Hanlon-I'd hate to say who will win that fight. I have boxed with both and they will make a great Corbett's advantage is in the He hits harder than Britt and that is the reason I lean to his side a

Harry Corbett-I wouldn't dare try to pick a winner in that fight. Sam Pruitt-I'm always with the Put me down as a Corbet

Tom McFadden-There's nothing to it but Britt. He is a class higher than Corbett and you fellows will see it too

Billy Jordan (announcer)-It will be the best fight ever pulled off. (Bill won't pick a winner, but from his talk one learns that Britt is his man.) Al Neill-Britt is a great fighter and must say the same of Corbett. I ather fancy the local man because of ake a nickel and toss it up. Willie Britt( he took his sat off and looked at the sky)-Do you think the sun will ever shine again? Yep? Well, just as sure as it does Jimmy wins. Mannie (the tipser)-Corbett will put that "Mut" awa in ten rounds. Harry Tuthill-Corbett will hit this fellow on the jaw, he'll lose his head and then they'll pack another native son out Tim McGrath-I like both boys, but on the dead this kid Corbett is the winner. He's too classy and cool for Spider Welch-I'll bet on the short end, whoever it is. I ain't particular. One's as good as the other to me. Jim Griffin-Britt's left is a wonder None of them escape it. He'll wear this fellow down in twelve rounds. Phil Wand (referee)-I can't figure Corbett beating Fitzgerald. Britt did that and he can do the same to Cor-George Harting (official timekeeper) Britt should win. He has reach, ceight, and speed, with an even break on other good qualities. I look for a

Sol Levison (who makes the gloves) Throw the names in a hat and blindfold me. That's my pick. The only international fight that seems likely to take place is the meet-ing of Herman Placke, the Hollander, Placke is a man who laims the championship of four or five countries. Such a reputation does not count in this country. The question is, "Who did he whip?" The names Placke can give in answer to that question are those of men who were never heard of outside of their native countries. The superiority of American fighters is so pronounced that even McCoy, who is presumably only a shadow of his former self, will probably handle the giant as he pleases.

It would give much zest to the pugilistic game if a real good heavy weight should suddenly loom up. There has been nothing discovered in this country that is in the same class with Jeffries, and it would be a big surprise if Placke should prove to be the man. We have had Limericks, Coughlins and a few had Limericks, Coughlins and a few others who came into prominence long enough to engage in one fight, but Jeffries is just as much the master of the situation as ever.

GETTING A MOVE ON.

Gimlin Gets other Men for Salt Lake

that certain classes will each year be offered early, so that they could guide themselves accordingly in marking their

Club-More Coming. While it may seem that "Father" Gimlin, manager of the Salt Lake baseball team, is a little slow in rounding up his players or this season's conflict for the Pacific National league pen-nant, it can be depended on that the team will be a good one when it is fully and completely organized. Gim says he can get plenty of players but he is after the best material obtainable,hence the delay. As the team now stands there are several good men. Every one of them are seasoned ball tossers, and if Gim can land a few more of the kind he already has, this town will stand a pretty good chance in the race. The exploster chief will play his old position at middle garden, and he may take a turn or two on the rubber if he feels so inclined. Hausen will be behind the bat to take care of anything that comes his way from Twirlers Wiggs, Quick and Esseck. Davis, the "Slats and Esseck. Davis, the "Slats," will be at the initial sack, and if Kim's plans are carried out, our old friend Casey will hover in the neighborhood of second, Just who will be at short, third and right and left field is un-known at the present time, but the probabilities are that Max Muller, the will be in the outfield. He was signed this week by Gimlin. He played with the Helena team last season and "made good" both in the field and at the bat. Edward Bruyette and "Mickey" will doubtless prove good men for the club. Altogether, the outlook is quite encouraging and Salt Lake carn be count-ed upon to be in the running.

ON FIELD AND TRACK.

High School Athletes Will be in the Race This Year. The approaching outdoor athletic season will find the high school boys in the race for honors on field and track, and while they do not expect to have a team capable of coping with the University boys, or any of the big outside teams, they confidently expect to hold their own with the various school teams that may be organized. During the week the athletic asso-ciation of the high school held a meeting at which steps were taken to or-ganize the team. Nets Sorenson was elected manager of the team, and the position of captain fell to Johnny Kep-Candidates for honors on th athletic field of endeavor were instructed to report for tryouts at once, and already there is a likely string of husky youngsters. The association is not suffering for money with which to put the team in shape, and if it is not at rattling good one it will simply be because there is no material to draw from. But there is plenty of good material, and all the boys need is careful coaching and a little hard work in training. There is some talk of the team meeting the soldiers, the Logan team and the Ogden aggregation, and they may get a cance at the University "preps. Among the youngsters who have dis-played considerable ability, are Rich-mond, a good jumper; Thompson, a hurdle man; with Carey, Rchmond and the White boys in the sprinting divi sion. Among the pole vaulters will be found Hanson and Wolfe. The boys honors are Hennesy and Richardson
